

The J.B.Priestley Society's

Open One-day Conference

PRIESTLEY, DOCUMENTARY, REALISM & DEMOCRACY

Saturday 25 October 2014, 9.45 – 17.00

In the Priestley Room of the West Yorkshire
Playhouse, LEEDS

Main conference lecture by Professor Chris Hopkins (Sheffield Hallam University) on 'Documentary, Realism and Democracy 1930-1945'

Aspects of Priestley's English Journey: papers by Alison Cullingford; Neil Miles; John Baxendale and Rod Slater

Professor Andrew Blaikie (University of Aberdeen): Priestley's 'three Englands' compared with Edwin Muir's perceptions of Scotland

Michael Nelson on Priestley and British cinema

Priestley's social novels re-assessed by Dr K.E.Smith and Tony Reavill

Martin Levy: Priestley on writers and intellectuals in an age of mass communication

*Conference fee: £15 for J.B.Priestley Society members £22 for non-members (includes coffee and tea;
lunch available in the theatre)*

BOOK YOUR PLACE NOW!

Send your cheque to: Dr K.E.Smith
7 Cockley Hill Lane, Kirkheaton,
HUDDERSFIELD HD5 0HH

Conference open to all who are interested.
There will be ample discussion time throughout